Virginia Satir: The Seed Model – Part II

Abstract

“The Seed Model” is transcribed from “The Teachings of Virginia Satir: The Crested Butte, Colorado Process Community Videotape Series” from the Satir Global Network.

In 1987, Virginia Satir was videotaped at the Avanta-sponsored Virginia Satir International Summer Institute in Crested Butte, Colorado. In this human learning laboratory, Virginia and her training staff worked for four weeks with 90 people from around the world. This tape is one of a series that contains specially selected teaching units from the last process community that Virginia taught. It includes “The definition of a person,” “The manifestation of the Life Force,” “Lying is a defense” and “The attitude toward change.”

Transcribed by Moira Haagen; edited by Steve Bentheim, PH.D. with additional thanks to the Satir Writers’ Group.
